THE CONSTITUTION'S TELEGRAPHIC AD-

VICES.

A BRAY FROM PATTERSON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Senator Paterson, of South Carolina, presents in the National Republican, this morning, a long card in reply to a recent publication of the board of trade of Columbia, S. C., which has been telegraphed over the whole country. Senator Patterson says it is but right that of the north should know that this same board of trade passed a resolution, during the ku klux reign in South Carolina, that no violence had occurred, and that life and property were perfectly safe.

EVERY MEMBER IS A DEMOCRAT, and many of them sympathized with the ku klux. The world knows whether they are good authorities now as to the condition of South Carolina. No doubt the board of trade of Charleston, South Carolina, will pass similar resolutions, as it is composed of similar material. The News and Courier, a democratic paper of Charleston, South Carolina, will give a similar certificate. The rifle clubs will do the same; and let me add that

OVER ONE HUNDRED RIFLE CLUBS have been organized during the political campaign, armed with Henry and Winchester rifles, and every member is a white democrat, and very many are and not one of these companies carry the United States flag on parade, and every ku klux in the state will testify to the good order prevailing now.

I do not say that every democrat is a ku klux, but I do say that

EVERY KU KLUX WAS A DEMOCRAT.

Judge Thompson Cooke, of the 8th circuit, also persists against the use of the troops to preserve order. True it was proven before the United States court that

OVER THREE HUNDRED HAVE BEEN

KILLED.

and over two thousand whipped because was broken open and all records therein were piled in a heap in the center of the main office, together with a part of his furniture, saturated with coal oil and set on fire, but fortunately the flames went out and only one or two of the papers are charred, though all are rendered nearly illegible by the oil. It appears that the incendiaries were frightened off before completing their work.

THIRD TERM ENGINEERING.

New York, September 5.—It is rumored that Don Platt has arranged a meeting during the coming week with the principal editors of the New York morning journals, and the support of these journals will be sought for financial policy of Senator Jones, on which platform Grant will be nominated for a third term.

NOMINATION.

St. Louis, Mo., September 5.—The democrats of the 12th district have nominated J. M. Glover for Congress.

ANOTHER NORTHERN OUTRAGE.

BROOKLYN, September 5.—Police Officer Carnes entered a young girl named

Mary McGuire into a beer garden under the pretense of directing her the way to her home, and brutally outraged her after beating her in a horrible manner.

Carnes was afterwards arrested and locked up. The girl's injuries are likely to prove fatal. The police commissioners, for unexplained reasons, kept the facts from the public.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Orders were issued to-day from the war department for the transfer of the third infantry from Holly Springs, Miss., to the following stations in Louisiana: Two companies at

New Orleans, and one each at Shreveport, Alexandria, Monroe, Harrisburg, St. Martinsville and Baton Rouge. Two companies of artillery have been ordered from Fort Barrancas, Fla., to New Orleans. Gen. Emory, commanding department of the Gulf, leaves here to-morrow night for New Orleans, to give his personal attention to the distribution of troops in Louisiana. He has made himself fully acquainted with the views of the government respecting the use of troops in the interests of peace, and is fully impressed with the importance of preventing their use for either political party.

Orders have also been issued through

Gen. McDowell for the disposition of

AN AWFUL FATE.

The Story of the Man Who Was

Tied to a Railroad Track by Robbers.

Near Henryville, Indiana, on Saturday night last, August Gardner was robbed and afterward bound to the track of the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis railroad. He lived long enough after being taken to Jeffersonville to tell the story of this unexampled atrocity. It is as follows:

My name is August Gardner. I was born in France, and have been from that country but a short time. I am but twenty-three years old. I have no relations or friends in this country. My father is dead. I was going down to Louisville in search of employment, and as I had but little money I thought I would walk. It could not have been much past 10 o'clock last night, when three men came up to me while I was walking along the track. One of them demanded my money. I told them that I was poor, having only a few dollars.

This did not do any good, for they seized me, two holding me and the other one searching my pockets and taking my pocket-book and everything else I had.

They then threw me down on the track.

I thought that they were going to kill me, and I begged to spare my life. They said nothing, but one of them produced a long piece of rope from his pocket, and they commenced to tie me to the track, over a cattle-guard. I was badly frightened, and begged them hard not to do that. I told them that I never knew them, and had never done them any harm, and if they would let me go I would say nothing of what had occurred. While I was talking and pleading with them they kept on tying me to the track over the cattle-guard. They tied me lengthways to the rail. The rope was tightly fastened around my body, legs and arms. When they got through I could not move my arms and legs. While I was begging them not to leave me there, they went off. I knew that the cars would be along soon, and I tried my utmost to free myself and loosen the ropes that bound me.

At first I did not think I would be able to move at all, but after repeated efforts

I succeeded in working my arms and body off the track, it swinging down.

I tried to get my left leg off, but I could not. I yelled with all my might, hoping

Tribute of Respect.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Hibernian Benevolent Society, held at their hall on Wednesday evening, 2nd inst., Mr. John Stephens in the chair, a committee of three was appointed to draft suitable resolutions, expressive of the sorrow felt by the society at the death of our late brother member, John Connolly.

The committee reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted:
Whereas, The members of this society are again called upon to clothe themselves in mourning, it having been the will of a Divine Providence to call from our midst our esteemed brother and companion, John Connolly;

Resolved, That while we mourn the loss of so true a brother and valuable friend to the Hibernian Benevolent Society, we will not forget that we, too, are mortal, and these frail tenements of ours, possessing now so much strength and vigor, must, in a short time, like his, become the inmates of the narrow house of the city of the dead, and our spirits return to God who gave us existence.

Resolved, That by the death of Brother Connolly, this society has lost a true and valuable member; his associates a warm friend and genial companion; the city a good citizen and the bereaved family a kind husband and indulgent father.

Resolved, That we condole with the relatives and friends of the deceased, and especially to the bereaved family would we extend our hearty sympathy on this mournful occasion, assuring them that he was honored and esteemed as a member of this society; and,

Be it further resolved, That this preamble and resolutions be spread on the records of the society, and published in the city papers; and also, that a copy of the same be furnished by the secretary to the family of the deceased.

HENRY HEARTY,
WILLIAM DOWLING,
THOMAS NUNAN,
Committee on Resolutions.

"Cataract Operations."

We find in the Newnan Herald the following very complimentary notice of one of our medical men:

We have seen a pamphlet under the above title written by Dr. A. W. Calhoun of Atlanta, who is a professor of diseases of the eye and ear in the Atlanta Medical College.
The pamphlet contains a report of twenty-seven operations for cataract, with remarks upon some of the modes of operating. It is an exceedingly well written and interesting paper, and is especially interesting to the medical fraternity. Dr. Calhoun is one of the most skillful surgeons in the south.
And though as yet a young man, he has already attained an enviable position in his profession. Although a graduate of one of the best American colleges, he has since taken a thorough course in one of the best medical and surgical institutions of Europe, where in addition to the theory of the medical and surgical science, he has also had extensive practical experience in the various hospitals connected with the institution.
Treatment of the eye and ear is a specialty with him. He is now practicing his profession in Atlanta, where those in need of his services can always find him. His numerous friends in Newnan, his old home, rejoice to hear of his success in his chosen profession.

IN DISTRESS.—The following is an extract from a letter received in this city from an old citizen of Cobb, who went to Arkansas several years ago.
PRESIDENT, NEWARK CO., ARK., August 29, 1874.

In 1872 and 1873 I made fine crops. This year I got stock and tools furnished to me and I have already opened up with a fine fifteen acres more promised, and all the produce of the thirty acres was to be mine for the clearing, which would have made me seven or eight bales of cotton and one hundred bushels of corn, if we had not been with seasons. We had no rain from May 11 until August, consequently we will not gather much. I never worked harder, and I will get off of twenty acres one bale of cotton and not a bushel of corn. The country will not make bread. I have seven in family and am without meat or corn and no money. One man is not able to help another.

B. S. ALMOND.
The picture drawn is truly a distressful one.

STEINHEIMER BROS., at the New York Store, No. 48 Whitehall street, are now receiving a large stock of Fall Goods and Trunks. In Dress Goods, Domestic, Jeans, Cassimeres, Water-proof Goods, Shoes, etc., this house offers superior inducements to purchasers. Being the largest house in the city, they are enabled to very plausibly assert their ability to undersell any house in this line.

In consideration of the generous treatment extended him by the proprietors of the Eastern Business College, Prof. Froberg gave a gratuitous lecture on detecting counterfeit money at that institution yesterday afternoon, which quite a number of persons attended. He will be glad to meet at the college here during the coming week.

ATTENTION ATLANTA ARTILLERY.—You are hereby notified to meet at THE CONVEN-TION OFFICE at 8 o'clock on Monday evening, the 7th inst., to transact important business. By order of
WM. MACRAE,
Captain Commanding.

W. F. EDWARDS, O. S.

PROF. LOGAN'S select school for girls and young men, has already opened with a large number of pupils, in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church on Marietta street. It has become one of the institutions of the city, and is patronized by the best citizens.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.—There will be religious services at this church to-night at 8 o'clock, and every night during the present week, at the same hour, conducted by the pastor. The public cordially invited to attend.

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST Rev. Mr. Eubanks, of the Primitive Baptist church, will preach this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the capitol building; also to-night at the usual hour at the Third Baptist church. The public are invited.

JERRY LYNCH, the peoples' clothier invites the public to his temple of fashion to inspect his stock of fall and winter goods. He has brought out one of the largest and finest stocks ever seen south.

COHEN & CO.—Messrs. Cohen & Co., wholesale dealers in liquors, wines, &c., have built up a large trade. Pure brands and cheap prices are what does the business.

ATLANTA'S PROGRESS.

New Buildings and New Business.
Atlanta Moves Steadily Onward.

New buildings are constantly going up in Atlanta, and as soon as finished are occupied by live business men.

Next to THE CONSTITUTION building, on Broad street, three-story brick one has been erected by Messrs. Broomhead & Alexander, and a very handsome one it is, strongly constructed and well finished.

The building is occupied by PARKINS, ALLEN & JENNINGS who have consolidated the architectural with that of house furnishing and decorative material, a very serviceable business.
They keep constantly on hand such ready made goods as white pine doors, sash, blinds, mouldings, brackets, mantels, newels, balusters, etc., etc. Their goods are manufactured in

THE GREAT PINERIES
of the northwestern states, where their facilities are unsurpassed in the production of the best quality of work, and at very low prices. They will keep a heavy stock of such goods on hand, and their customers endeavor to supply the market as cheaply as any.

Parkins & Allen, ranking among the leading architects of the south, have such opportunities of selecting such work and adapting it to proper positions and proportions, that we feel sure our people will encourage their new business by taking advantage of their skill and taste in the selection of such work as will reflect credit on them and their customers. They intend supplying the want that has long been felt, and that is to assist as well as to furnish a first-class style of work. And it is not a little surprising, considering the enterprise of our people, that this house should be the first established in our city.

PEOPLE AT A DISTANCE and on the line of railroads, or some distance from them, will do well to direct their attention to this house, and when visiting Atlanta, to call and examine their work.
They will be greatly interested, and their goods have already been sent into South Carolina and throughout several portions of the state.

As to the
ARCHITECTURAL DEPARTMENT, Messrs. Parkins and Allen have designed and superintended our first buildings, and are the only city but in different portions of the state, South Carolina and Alabama, and anywhere else, and their care and skill will receive prompt and courteous attention.
Those wishing to build either beautiful cottages or comfortable mansions, would do wisely to consult with Parkins, Allen and Jennings, or get one of their price lists and circulars.

The city is fully prepared to supply demands at short notice and low prices, at 32 Broad street.

THE CITY EXECUTIVE COM-MITTEE.

Organizing for the Municipal Campaign, etc.

In pursuance of a call from the chairman, the city executive committee met last evening for the purpose of organizing the city campaign, and the following members were present:
The meeting was organized with Captain Evan P. Howell in the chair, and Mr. H. K.
Shackelford acting as secretary.

A chairman stated that the meeting was called to provide for the organization of another executive committee. The general impression in the present committee was that their term of office expired with the present year, and that they should have a new committee to be organized.

Capt. W. T. Newman offered the following:
RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, The time is near at hand for the democracy of the city to nominate candidates for mayor, aldermen and councilmen, and whereas it is proper that a new executive committee for the city should be appointed, therefore,

Resolved, That the democracy of the city be requested to elect their respective wards on Tuesday night, the 8th instant, and after reorganizing their ward clubs to select five democrats from each ward to serve as members of the city executive committee for the ensuing year.

The committee suggests the following as suitable places for the ward meetings: 1st Ward—R. E. Lee engine house.
2d Ward—City hall.
3d Ward—Dr. Thompson's store.
4th Ward—Medical college.
5th Ward—Judge Ezzard's office, Bell building.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.
Mr. Pendleton moved that the thanks of the meeting be returned to Captain Howell and the secretary. Adopted.

In response to the above addresses were delivered by the chairman and Capt. John Thomas. They urged unity and harmony in the party nominations, and the putting down of all independent candidates.

On motion the meeting adjourned sine die.

A Suggestion.

Under the new charter the people will be required to elect three of our citizens for the city at large in the general council. It is important to secure the services of three of our best citizens—men of ability, integrity and business qualifications. In response to the call, it is suggested for three years, Dr. E. Roach for one year, and John H. McConnell for one year—names that will be strongly supported, and gentlemen whom, if elected, will serve the city faithfully and well.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.
And a very good suggestion.

AN INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.—We are reliably informed that an association of lady residents of Atlanta will establish an industrial school here during the coming week.

They intend teaching their scholars everything necessary to make them accomplished housekeepers—cooking, laundry work and sewing in every style.

They enter heartily into the plan proposed by the representative of the Singer Company here, and will use his new improved Singer sewing machines, believing they will accomplish the widest amount of work, and to suit best for the intended purpose.

We believe such a school as this will be appreciated by all good citizens.

MUSIC.—We have in hand a beautiful piece of music from the store of Guilford, Wood & Co., who are receiving a heavy stock of music and musical instruments.

This store is something of what Atlanta may well be proud. It is doing a great business, stretching out over the city in all directions. We stated recently that the music sales of Atlanta reached twenty-five thousand dollars, but we are satisfied that the sales of Guilford, Wood & Co., alone largely exceed what the Atlanta store is becoming a musical depot for a large part of Georgia and other States.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE POOR AND AFFLICTED.
—Dr. Gurly will treat free one hour each day all who are afflicted and who are unable to pay. The hour will be between 2 and 3 p. m., and the place 100 Whitehall street, in rear of Pinson's drug store.

Dr. Gurly has made quite a reputation in Atlanta already, and his patients show that he has a large and generous heart.

M. RICH.—Mr. Rich comes to the front again; this morning, Mr. A. E. Shulhafer, who has long been with the New York Store, is now with M. Rich.

HIGHWAY ROBBER ARRESTED.

He is Lodged in Jail.

A few days ago THE CONSTITUTION published the account of an attempt at highway robbery which took place a few miles from the city. Also of the escape of the robber. The name of the colored desperado is William Thomas Holmes, and that of the negro who he struck down and tried to kill is Berry Buice.

Yesterday some twelve or fifteen negroes who are interested in the affair, came to the city to investigate the facts concerning the escape of Holmes from the station house.
They were standing on Marietta street, and suddenly spied their man, and started for him. Holmes took to his heels and for a few moments made dirt fly, while the crowd of pursuers behind constantly increased.

Officer White, hearing the alarm, joined in the pursuit, and overhauled his man near Burke's book store on Whitehall street.
Holmes was taken to the station house and from there to Justice Walker's courtroom, where he was arraigned upon a charge of assault with intent to murder on Perry Buice.

The prisoner is a large, broad-shouldered, villainous-looking negro, and tells a dozen different stories as to where he came from and his employment.

He waived trial before the magistrate, and was sent to jail to await the superior court in default of $1,000.

Mr. F. P. Gray appeared for the state, and Messrs. Thrasher & Thrasher, for the defense.

Hon. John H. James, Banker.

The following we clip from the News, about a gentleman whom a wool hat boy told us he will support for governor.

The career of Mr. James is familiar to all our readers. His early life was checked by adversities; but possessed of a stout heart, with much natural talent, and a great deal of energy, he fought his way through obstacles. Beginning business life in Atlanta on a meagre salary of $12 50 per month, he gradually worked his way up to what was then regarded as a competency of twelve hundred dollars per annum. In 1855, with his savings of about two thousand dollars, he embarked in business for himself and by 1860 was worth some twenty thousand dollars.
During this year he married his amiable wife, and subsequently moved to his residence in Atlanta and engaged in banking. The disastrous result of the war injured him financially to such an extent that on the return of peace he was possessed of only $10,000, and he was forced to resume his business. Nevertheless he resumed, and by shrewd management and financial skill not only recovered all he had lost, but increased his wealth until he had some $100,000.

With Mr. James' public career the reader is well acquainted, it being of recent occurrence. As mayor of Atlanta he labored earnestly and diligently for the good of the city, and his efforts were rewarded by the election of him to the office of governor of Georgia in 1872. His public career the reader is well acquainted, it being of recent occurrence. As mayor of Atlanta he labored earnestly and diligently for the good of the city,
and his efforts were rewarded by the elec-
in 1872.

When the panic of last fall burst upon the public, and suddenly and unexpectedly, Mr.
James, like many other bankers throughout the country, was forced to suspend temporarily. His deposit account was heavy; he had been a liberal, though safe, banker, and had a large number of customers.

Public confidence in his solvency was signally manifested by the unanimity with which all of his creditors came to his relief. In a few weeks he demonstrated his financial strength by resuming payments, and to-day he does a larger banking business, and has a larger list of depositors than ever before.

At the time that the Bullock gang were debauching the people, Mr. James was one of the first men in the state to declare his opposition to the payment of the fraudulent bonds. In 1872, he addressed a strongly worded letter to the Legislature against the issue of bonds for the purpose of sketching of the bill, which was passed, resulting in the suspension of the bank.

For the part he took in this opposition to the swindling transactions of Bullock he was severely assailed by the Crows & Co. party, and he had the satisfaction of knowing that two-thirds of the entire population of Georgia heartily endorsed the position he had taken.

As a banker the success of Mr. James has been remarkable. His confidence in his financial strength and ability is absolute.
His extensive landed estate form a solid background to the large cash capital employed by him in the management of his business, and ensures him a high position among financiers.

It is unnecessary to say anything concerning the private character of Mr. James.
His benevolence, charity, largeness of heart, and integrity are well known to all. But few men in Georgia possess as many friends as he does, and there are none who have less enemies. Still in the prime of life, he can look forward to many years of ease and usefulness and honor.

NEW BUILDINGS.—Prominent among the new buildings in process of erection in our city are those of Messrs. Hayden, Healey and Berry, on the corner of Alabama and up street. These structures occupy two lots, and extend through from Alabama street to the railroad. When completed they will not only be a great improvement to that section of the city, but will also be a landmark which will exist for store-houses on that street for some time. The buildings are of brick, and will be two stories high, and will be conveniently arranged. The need for such structures is so great that owners of vacant lots on that block have been offered inducements to build, and will find no difficulty in renting, at remunerative prices. Messrs. Hayden, Healey and Berry, have selected an opportunity to build, and will beyond doubt realize handsomely upon their investment.

RT. REV. C. T. QUINCY, bishop of Tennessee, will preach at St. Philip's church this morning at 10 o'clock, on Monday evening will deliver a lecture on the Catholics of England at the same place, commencing at 8 o'clock; after which a collection will be taken up for the purpose of an organ in the chapel of the University of the South.

PLEASE allow us, through the columns of your valuable paper, to inform the numeous sportsmen's clubs in this and adjoining states, that the proposed shooting match at our coming state fair will not come off, the city council of Atlanta, managing the fair, having by a decided majority refused to grant our petition, asking for three hundred dollars, to be given in cash premiums at the proposed match.

GATE CITY SPORTSMEN'S CLUB.

ATTENTION is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. West and Edwards, wholesale grocers. This firm is one of the most energetic and reliable in the city, and are doing a heavy business.

REV. W. H. CRAWFORD will preach at Good Templars' hall at ten and a half o'clock; also at the junction of Marietta street and Mason & Turner's ferry road at eight o'clock in the evening.

The young ladies of Atlanta will give an entertainment at DeGue's on Wednesday night, the 8th inst. Admission 50 cents.
Don't fail to
